Cat breeding seems to be slightly less complicated than dog breeding, since you don't need to be as precise about the timing and felines seem to be far more self-sufficient at handling the mating themselves.

In any case, a male cat needs more than one female to keep it happy, and its owner will have to decide whether to keep at least five or six females or to advertise the male at public stud. So for the beginner, it is better to buy a female kitten, sending her away to stud when she is sufficiently mature.
