The #1 New York Times bestselling novel and basis for the Academy Award-winning film—a timeless and universal story about the lines we abide by, and the ones we don't—nominated as one of America's best-loved novels by PBS's The Great American Read. Aibileen is a black maid in 1962 Jackson, Mississippi, who's always taken orders quietly, but lately she's unable to hold her bitterness back. Her friend Minny has never held her tongue but now must somehow keep secrets about her employer that leave her speechless. White socialite Skeeter just graduated college. She's full of ambition, but without a husband, she's considered a failure. Together, these seemingly different women join together to write a tell-all book about work as a black maid in the South, that could forever alter their destinies and the life of a small town...

A riveting and powerful story of an unforgiving time, an unlikely friendship and an indestructible love

A guidebook to help educators teach middle school or high school students in formal instructional courses and to teach all students about the prophets in an informal setting.

Newly married and with the sudden development of a baby on the way, can Mallory have the union she always dreamed of? Determined to avoid the fi ghting trap her parents were caught in, will she fi nd that "getting along is easier said than done"? Follow her and David as they adjust to marriage, changing business dynamics, and the challenges presented by pregnancy and parenthood! They each work to stay in tune with the Lord so that they can attune their hearts toward each other! They fi nd that the Lord is on their side, but they have an adversary determined to mar their picture of Christ's love for His church. Dangers oppose and Erik Bransom and Daniel Faulkner continue to work for their safety! As John Anderson and Steb Hanson seek to fi ght wickedness from the pulpit, Bransom fi ghts to put wicked people in prison! Follow the Andersons and their friends into a new and electrifying series! Danger threatens David and Mallory almost immediately as they take up part-time residence at their Arkansas ranch. After narrowly escaping that, new drama comes as Mallory's beautiful Arabian mare, a wedding gift from David, shows genetic weakness! Trying to rebound from that heartache, she smacks face-fi rst into more grown-up reality! Can they both work together to see their dreams come true as they pull others along with them? Can they create wealth and jobs and remain unspoiled by it? And can they rear their beautiful infant daughter to be who the Lord wants her to be?
