City Of Ember Book Chapter

He insists that it's extremely important that every job in Ember gets done. Lina 's friend Lizzie Bisco volunteers to go first and draws a slip of paper that reads, "Supply Depot clerk." Lizzie looks crestfallen—being a clerk is dull, as it consists entirely of keeping records of what goes in and out of Ember's storerooms.

The City of Ember Chapter 1 Summary & Analysis | LitCharts

What Lina says about The Book of the City of Ember indicates again that censorship is an essential part of Ember—from the first chapter, the reader knows that Ember isn't the only place that exists (though, it's impossible to know if there's anything left aboveground in terms of civilization).

CHAPTER 1 Assignment Day In the city of Ember, the sky was always dark. The only light came from great flood lamps mounted on the buildings and at the tops of poles in the middle of the larger squares. When the lights were on, they cast a yellowish glow over the streets; people walking by threw long shadows that shortened and then stretched out again.

The Builders are a coalition of "professionals" - doctors, scientists and architects, and they have assembled in the city of Ember. Ember is a city built by men who believe that the end of the world is coming shortly, and they have constructed it so that it, and its inhabitants, can survive the apocalypse. The city has amassed supplies for Emberians that will last at least two hundred years. The first mayor of the city of Ember was given a locked box by the original Builders.
