Hurricane Katrina Essay. It is not an exaggeration to say that Hurricane Katrina represents one of the deadliest hurricanes in U.S. history. At least 1,833 are reported to have died or gone missing as an outcome of the hurricane, which was formed on August 23, 2005. According to official records, nearly one million people were left homeless; in fact, it would be reasonable to indicate that Hurricane Katrina has ranked among the costliest disasters to hit the United States throughout the history.
