I own a 1991 Glasstream 19' Cuddy with a 3.0L and Mercruiser Alpha One drive. I bought it at auction for $2000, and I think I got a pretty good deal on it. But after running it for about a month now I can see that it lacks power. It's not a problem with the engine, it really runs great.

Hi, I have a Mercruiser 3.0 from 2001. Bought it used. Noticed that it has no thermostat and want to fix that. So I got the thermostat kit from the shop, but the thermostat won't fit into the cavity in the housing. When measured the cavity is clearly shallower than the heighth of the thermostat. I have verified the part number with the store and with Mercruiser.

by Jared Curtis. The thermostat in your MerCruiser Alpha monitors the temperature of the engine. The impeller inside the out-drive sucks water into the engine. If the engine temperature is too hot, the thermostat opens to allow more water into the engine. If the engine is too cold, the thermostat closes so that the water cannot enter the engine to cool it.

I have a 1983 searay with a 3.0L gm Mercruiser with alpha one. I believe it has EST ignition. I just purchased this boat and the engine was running well but the valve train was very noisy. I just adjusted the valves according to my manual by bringing the #1 cylinder to TDC and then adjusting intake 1,2,4 and exhaust 1,3.
