Late in 2004, Maggie Nelson was looking forward to the publication of her book Jane: A Murder, a narrative in verse about the life and death of her aunt, who had been murdered thirty-five years before. The case remained unsolved, but Jane was assumed to have been the victim of an infamous serial killer in Michigan in 1969. Then, one November afternoon, Nelson received a call from her mother, who announced that the case had been reopened; a new suspect would be arrested and tried on the basis of a DNA match. Over the months that followed, Nelson found herself attending the trial with her mother and reflecting anew on the aura of dread and fear that hung over her family and childhood--an aura that derived not only from the terrible facts of her aunt's murder but also from her own complicated journey through sisterhood, daughterhood, and girlhood. The Red Parts is a memoir, an account of a trial, and a provocative essay that interrogates the American obsession with violence and missing white women, and that scrupulously explores the nature of grief, justice, and empathy.

Believing that laughter is the best medicine, author and pastor Ed Delph lightens your load as God brightens your way. Take five fun moments each day to discover your miracle-working and loving God. Through modern-day joys and interesting stories of the past, you will be entertained and inspired as you realize that most of us go through many of the same situations--but some come out on the other side smiling, others crying. Our mouths were filled with laughter, our tongues with songs of joy. Then it was said among the nations, "The Lord has done great things for them" (Psalm 126:2). Wit and wisdom is woven through 100 stories designed to define accurately the merciful and faithful God who loves all of His children--no matter what. You will discover a God who enjoys a good laugh. God is an everyday Savior and Lord who loves everyday people--enjoy His presence today!
