Strong strategic alignment among the people, processes and technology components of a firm's supply chain and across an organization have a huge impact on the success of the supply chain and the organization. This has always been true, but in today's complex, disruptive, competitive business environment, it is more difficult to establish and maintain this strategic alignment than ever before.

~~The Challenge of Strategic Alignment - Supply Chain Brain~~

Supply chains cannot be measured in absolutes or designed in isolation of the corporate strategy. Here are six steps to align your supply chain with your corporate strategy: 1. Define and communicate a clear corporate strategy. One of the biggest failure points in aligning strategy is when the supply chain organization doesn't know what to align with.
