manifested in his three themes of the decline of the British Empire: first, the British lost power and influence at the end of World War Two, that power having been transferred to America.

While demographically the longer you live, the longer you can expect to live and if you survive past the age of 10 your life expectancy goes up too – 1,000 days is really a metaphor for our lives. It acknowledges that in developed countries health systems, many of those we care for and care about are older people in their last 1,000 days.
