Keep on having salt among yourselves, and live in peace with one another." So as we have been made upright by faith, let us live in peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, If possible, so far as it depends on you, live in peace with all people. But if the unbelieving partner leaves, let him go.

'Live in Peace' in the Bible

Foreword by Miroslav Volf Preface by LaVerne Stokes How are Christians to understand and respond to our distressed inner-city communities? Building on both the perspective of God's new creation and the view from the neighborhood, Mark R. Gornik's To Live in Peace shows how the life of the church, the strategies of community development, and the practices of peacemaking can

To Live in Peace: Biblical Faith and the Changing Inner ...

In his book, To Live in Peace: Biblical Faith and the Changing Inner City, author Mark Gornik challenges the reader to "consider the promise and possibility of God's peace for the changing of the American inner city" (p. 1). Drawing from multiple disciplines, Gornik sets out to answer three basic questions: how we are to think about our dilapidated inner city neighborhoods; how the church is to act our Christ's narrative story; and how we can interpret God's new creation in this ...

Peace is a fruit of the Spirit, so, if we are allowing the Spirit of God to rule in our lives, we will experience His peace. To be spiritually minded brings life and peace, according to Romans 8:6. The world will continue to have wars and interpersonal conflicts until Jesus comes to establish true, lasting peace (see Isaiah 11:1-10), but God will give His peace to those who trust Him.
