Publisher W. W. Norton & Company and authors Benjamin Ginsberg, Theodore J. Lowi, Caroline J. Tolbert and Margaret Weir have partnered to produce We the People 11th Edition (9780393639988). Presently classified as a Chegg top 400 textbook, its reputation signifies its usefulness as a study tool and a resource preferred by Political Science / Government / General instructors at colleges throughout the nation.

With fresh insight from new co-author Andrea Campbell, We the People, Twelfth Edition, once again sets the standard for showing students how government impacts their lives and why it matters who participates. Campbell relates true, personal stories of how government affects ordinary citizens. This focus is reinforced by the book's signature "Who Are Americans?" and "Who Participates?" features which motivate critical thinking about how Americans experience and shape politics. Learning goals ensure that students maintain consistent focus on core concepts in the text, in its companion InQuizitive learning tool, and in supporting critical-thinking exercises.

Politics is relevant and participation matters.

Emphasizing the relevance of politics and government in everyday life, We the People provides tools to help students think critically about American government and politics. The Sixth Edition has been carefully updated to reflect most recent developments, including the ongoing conflict in Iraq and the 2006 midterm elections. Complemented by a rich package of multimedia tools for instructors and students, including a new video-clip DVD, We the People is now more pedagogically effective than ever.
